TRAGEDY AT WISHARTS POINT.

Boy Shot and Killed.

Alonzo Thomas, aged 14 years, son of Mr. L. P. Thomas, was shot and killed at store of Mr. L. W. Massey, Wisharts Point, last Monday by Hillman Shivers, aged 11 years, son of Edward Shivers, formerly of this county now of New Jersey. The contents of the gun, from which the fatal shot was fired, entered near the heart of Alonzo Thomas causing instant death.

The details of the tragedy, are given in the following evidence submitted at the coroner's inquest: Dr. T. T. Taylor, who saw Alonzo Thomas in about a minute after he was shot, said, he was very bloody lying flat on his face, head next to door and made one gasp after he got there.

Elzie Thomas, brother of the deceased, testified, that Hillman Shivers, shot him. He cursed him, then drew his gun, put a shell in the gun and shot him. That when he was shot he was standing on the plank or the nail keg trying to get hold of the gun to keep Hillman from shooting him.

Wm. H. Satchell, another witness, testified that he had been in the store but at time of shooting was out of door standing back on steps and when he turned around found house full of smoke and Thomas falling. Saw pistol in hand of Hillman before he left store but did not see him with a gun. Heard him say that he shot him. In response to inquiry further said, he had heard conversation between Alonzo and Hillman before he left store and they were talking as usual; didn't seem to be mad with each other.

The verdict of the jury was that Alonzo Thomas came to his death on 13th day of May, by a gun shot wound inflicted by the hands of Hillman Shivers.

He was sent to jail by Justice A. S. Taylor on Tuesday.

In Memoriam.

After an illness of two years and four months Mrs. Sally W. Croley died at her home in Leonard, May 4th, 1901, of consumption, aged 61 years. She was a kind and devoted wife and mother and will be greatly missed by all who knew her. She leaves an aged husband and two sons and four daughters to mourn their loss. All that willing hands could do could not keep her with us. God saw it best to take her out of his suffering. Blessed Lord Thy will be done.

Oh, mother has gone and left us, For the cold and silent tomb, Our hearts are filled with sorrow, And our homes are filled with gloom.

We watched and waited by her, In hope that she would stay, But angels came with snowy wings And bore our mother away.

But, Oh how sweet it will be in that beautiful land, So free from all sorrow and pain, With songs on our lips and with harps in our hands, To meet our mother again.

By her husband and children.
